

Curriculum vitae

Elizabeth Beecham

professional experience:

2012–. Creative director, Glasstronomy Studios, Markham, ON

2001–2011, Manager, Operations and Marketing, Ernst & Young Electronic Publishing Services Inc., Toronto, ON

1996–2001, Senior Tax Staff, Operations, Ernst & Young Electronic Publishing Services Inc., Toronto, ON

1991–1996, Consultant, Operations, Ernst & Young Electronic Publishing Services Inc., Toronto, ON

artist training:

Laura Heathcote, Glowing Panes Glassworks, Thornhill, ON

Melanie Kidd, Glowing Panes Glassworks, Thornhill, ON

artist experience:

2012, Guest instructor Hollander Glass Canada, Mississauga, ON

2011, Artist associate, Glowing Panes Glassworks, Thornhill, ON

2010, Guest instructor, Glowing Panes Glassworks, Thornhill, ON

2009, Guest instructor, Glowing Panes Glassworks, Thornhill, ON

exhibitions:

2010, Glowing Panes Glassworks - Group, guest instructor exhibit

2009, Glowing Panes Glassworks - Group, guest instructor exhibit

2008, Glowing Panes Glassworks - Group, student exhibit

2007, Glowing Panes Glassworks - Group, student exhibit

community outreach:

2011, led volunteer team to create fused and stained glass items salvaged from church demolition to raise funds for church rebuild and refurbishment, St George on Yonge, Willowdale, ON

2011, sponsored mosaic mural created by volunteers and Sunday school youth group for installation in new building, St George on Yonge, Willowdale, ON

2010, created and donated fused glass piece to Arts and Tarts silent auction, Markham Arts Council, Markham, ON

2010, created and donated fused glass piece to online auction for Haiti earthquake, Ernst & Young, Toronto, ON education:

BA, University of Toronto, ON