

glasstronomy studios

There's a place with us,
Somewhere a place with us.
Workshops in a fun atmosphere
Wait for you
Somewhere.

There's time with us,
Reserve some time with us,
Time glass making with skills to share,
Time to learn, time to care,
One day soon!

Somewhere.
There'll be a forum to exchange ideas,
To share an interest in glass with our peers
Somewhere . . .

There's a place with us,
A time and place with us.
Wait a moment, you're almost there.
Take a chance, let us take you there
Online or in person,
One day soon,
Somewhere!

Glasstronomy Studios opening soon!

We acknowledge and apologize to Stephen Sondheim for our adaptation of his lovely lyrics to "Somewhere" from West Side Story.
