Stay cool this summer fusing glass at Glasstronomy Studios!

"WOW! This first camp in Advanced Fusing was absolutely amazing! ... Excellent teachers that were so patient with us! Unique creations as the result of our efforts. To top it all off, scrumptious lunches every day! ... I would have paid twice as much for what I received in these four overflowing days! Now I need to catch my breath to see what I'll repeat on my own!!"

Why should kids have all the fun?

Take a break from the heat and join us in our bright, air-conditioned, fully equipped studio for our comprehensive fused glass workshops and adult summer camps. With options for both the beginner: Fusing with Mica and Glass pictures, as well as those more advanced: Hot glass heaven and Glass blocks, we will challenge and inspire any art glass explorer. Our summer program comes with an added bonus ... fresh delicious lunches served in house each day! Register by email at mkidd@glasstronomystudios.ca, or call 1-855.415.9777.

G127 | Hot glass heaven

Thursday, July 18, 2013
10 am–4 pm

Learn how to pull your own stringers to create the perfect tree branch, spin a cane with the vitroglyph, and stir and pour System 96 sheet glass to create one-of-a-kind glass material. Glass combing, flame work and hot glass safety will also be covered.

G129 | Glass pictures

Monday, July 22 to Thursday,
July 25, 2013
10 am–4 pm

Be inspired by photography, painting and other creative mediums, while creating your fused glass interpretations. Using System 96 sheet glass, frit, powder and paint, students will explore four new exciting techniques while creating pictorials in fused glass. Beginners are welcome.

G128 | Working with Mica

Thursday, August 15, 2013
10 am–4 pm

These beautiful metallic powders offer a modern brilliance to your fused glass artwork. Pallet knife and airbrushing techniques will be covered. Each student will create six pendants and an 8-inch serving dish. Beginners are welcome.

Special events — Be original and wow your guests! Give them something to talk about and never forget. Choose Glasstronomy Studios for your next corporate, family or group event.
